

What others have said about Omaha Career Networking

"I was out of work for nine months and had real doubts about my future. The Omaha Career Networking Support Group (OCNSG) helped me evaluate my skills and stay focused on the task at hand. I gained valuable information from the speakers and encouragement from the group."

Rob A

"The OCNSG is a place where you can step away from the haystacks of un/underemployment, take a deep breath. It is important to ask yourself and reassess what has happened, where you are today, and where you want to go. We do it prayerfully, positively and with the support of believers who model true principles of faith, hope and love. After two months of OCNSG support and utilizing the tactics learned there I landed full time work in a completely new and exciting field suiting my interests, values and skills. I would highly recommend this group to anyone in need of valuable career support."

Mary C

"I would like to thank everyone who is involved with your group who gave me help along my path to employment. I have not been with the group for that long, but I have learned much with the weekly meetings. I am sure the prayers didn't hurt either. Needless to say I have landed. It's a great opportunity for me and I am looking forward to starting. Thanks again hope to see you soon." Joe B

In Matthew 6:25 Jesus says - Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes? He goes on to say in verse 32 ... your heavenly Father knows that you need them.

TRANSFERRABLE SKILLS

Applying only for jobs online during a job search has a less than 5% chance of getting you a job. Using new tactics, like those shared at a Omaha Career Networking meeting, will greatly improve your chances of finding and getting that next job.
